

IDEAS CENTRE Health & Safety Policy

The Centre is a Non-Profit Organisation.

Its aim, supported by Public Funds, is to support Developing Countries in their efforts to integrate into the global economy and the transition to multilateral trading system, in order to contribute to Sustainable Development. It has the status of an organisation of public interest in Switzerland and is therefore tax exempt.

The Centre pursues the following objectives:

- Offers services, strategic advice and support for the establishment of Institutions in the fields of Political Economy and International Trade
- Provides training and support in trade negotiations at the regional and global level
- Promotes Public-Private cooperation in the areas of Development and Governance
- Analysis of economic cooperation between developed and developing countries / transition, as well as cooperation among developing countries / transition.
- Encourages policy dialogue on issues related to International Trade, Development cooperation and Economic Governance.

IDEAS Centre takes Health and Safety extremely seriously - the welfare of its staff is important. IDEAS employs a team of Trade Policy Advisors who undertake research and advises Least Developed Countries to help them adapt their Trade Policies to develop their national economy, access the world economy, and encourages sustainable development.

IDEAS Centre is also a member of the Swiss Centre Patronal and receives yearly guidelines through the "Guide de l'Employeur", strictly followed for the welfare of its employees.

It also takes its lead from the Health & Safety Swiss regulations, ensuring that all its activities exceed the regulations set out by Article 6 of the Swiss Work Law. Good working conditions and a sense of success in the workplace, on the other hand, generate both physical and psychological well-being and can increase the motivation and performance of workers.
